

Mrs Smith's spelling group task.

Task 1: Can you say and spell these -ar, -er, -or words? Complete the sentences.

Task 2: Using 'of and 'have' fill the blanks (they often get used in the wrong place!)

Target 10: Words with -ar, -er and -or (Vowel phonemes)

Spell these words:-

ar	er	or
far	her	sort
farm	herd	born
scar	stern	port
scarf	fern	corn
harm	verb	short
charm	herb	sport
march	sister	fork
mark	silver	form
smart	letter	north
sharp	butter	corner
garden	winter	horse
carpet	clever	storm

Complete these sentences:-

Someone who sings is a singer

Someone who thinks is a

Someone who fights is a

Someone who paints is a

Someone who bakes is a

Using "Of" and "Have"

Of and have may seem alike, but they have different meanings.

Here are some ways to use of:-

A piece of the cake.

Of course I will go!

Here are some ways to use have:-

I have three cats.

You could have been there.

Fill in the blanks:-

1. John would done that.

2. Any one the people here could taken it.

3. He should stayed longer, course.

COULD HAVE / WOULD HAVE / SHOULD HAVE